

AFIN-UAB:

María Zambrano Postdoctoral Fellowship

AFIN-UAB

- Based at the Autonomous University of Barcelona
- An interdisciplinary and international research group
- Disciplines: social and medical sciences (social, cultural and medical anthropology, sociology, education, law, medicine, psychology, and social work).
- Methodology: qualitative and quantitative methodologies, with an ethnographic approach and a strong commitment to ensuring knowledge transfer.

Research/Project Description

A candidate with a high research profile that aims to analyse the cultural, social and political aspects of the following fields – but not limited to – will be prioritize:

- Health and Life Sciences: Medicine, Public Health, Health Management, Genetics, Human Biology, Biotechnology
- Human Reproduction
- Sexual and Reproductive Health, Rights and Justice
- Cross-border Health and Care
- Family and Kinship
- Childhood and Youth Studies
- Sex and Gender Studies

Documents and deadlines

- A brief research proposal stating its originality, innovation, dissemination and implementation (max. 1 page).
- Most recent Abbreviated CV.
- A letter of interest highlighting the suitability of the candidate to the research and knowledge transfer needs of the group and the expected impact (max. 2 pages).

Send to: c.afin@uab.cat by no later than July 12, 2021.

Subject line: "AFIN-UAB Call: María Zambrano"

The Fellowship

The purpose of these grants is to attract teaching and research staff with accumulated post-doctoral experience in foreign universities or research centres.

- These grants are aimed at teaching and research staff, of Spanish nationality or from another country, with an accumulated post-doctoral career of more than 24 months in Spanish universities/research centres or outside Spain other than that of the defence of the doctoral thesis.
- Duration: one, two or three years.
- Salary: 4,000 euros gross per month.

Who can apply?

Requirements

- At the official application time, candidates must be carrying out research projects at universities or centres outside Spain.
- The stays shall be carried out in Spanish public universities.
- Justification of the impact of their incorporation on the re-qualification of the host university team.

Selection Process by AFIN

The deadline for submitting to AFIN: July 12, 2021.
Information of the results of the first stage: July 16, 2021.

Selection meeting: July 19, 2021.

Final decision: July 20, 2021.

Following the criteria of the fellowship we will take into account:

- Abbreviated CV (50%)
- Candidate suitability to the research and knowledge transfer needs (30%)
- Research project (20%)

Official deadline from the Autonomous University of Barcelona pending